

NIGHT WATCHMAN AT SPHAR BRICK YARDS IS SHOT BY TRAMP

Watchman Littenberg at Sphar Plant Is Shot in Left Arm by Loner He Had Run Away From Plant — Wound Is Not Serious.

Jesse Littenberg, night watchman at the Sphar Pressed Brick Plant, just east of the city, was shot in the left arm about midnight Tuesday by a stranger found hiding in the brick kiln when the watchman was making his regular trip about the plant.

Tuesday afternoon a tramp was found loafing about the brick yards and Tuesday evening when the watchman went to work he found the man and ordered him to leave the plant as no loners were allowed about the plant at night. In the past the brick yards were great loafing places for travelers who were heating their way on the railroad as they could get into the kilns and keep very warm during the night. The man appeared to leave the yards when the watchman gave him his orders but as Mr. Littenberg was making his regular trip through the plant he saw a man hiding behind an obstruction and ordering the hiding man to come out into the light of his lantern, he went after his revolver. The hiding man was quicker than the watchman and fired. The lone straggler watchman in the left arm and passed entirely through the arm. This wound completely paralyzed his left arm but he fired once at the fleeing tramp, his shot going wild.

The local police were notified that the gun user was coming in the direction of Maysville and three policemen made a very thorough search of the East End but were unable to locate him. Dr. C. McGuire dressed Mr. Littenberg's wound which will not prove serious.

You'll be green if you fail to see the Senior class play "Green Stockings."

EASTLAND'S ASSESSMENT NOT AS LARGE AS WAS THOUGHT

City Councilmen and Education Board Members Discuss Future of Schools After Delightful Feast Served by Students.

One of the best meetings of the city officials ever held in the City of Maysville in years was that held at the High School building Tuesday evening when the City officials and members of Council were the guests of the Board of Education at a banquet served by the members of the Domestic Science class of the High School. The banquet, itself, was a delightful affair with a menu that was a surprise to those partaking. Miss Stevenson and the members of her class are indeed culinary artists.

The meeting served its purpose in that the city officials learned that the Board of Education was facing the same problems facing City Council and all other employers at the present time—that of a fair and adequate salary for those employed. The city officials learned that the average grade teacher in the Maysville schools was receiving a salary smaller than the salary Council proposes to pay its street laborers and all agreed that neither the school teachers or the street laborers were receiving enough.

The matter of a bond issue for a new school building in the Sixth ward and the matter of admitting the Eastland school district into the Maysville city school district was also thoroughly discussed, everyone present being given an opportunity to discuss the questions. It seemed to be the general opinion of the majority present that the Sixth ward residents were entitled to a new school building and it also seemed to be the opinion of the majority present that the adoption of Eastland for school purposes only would prove mutually beneficial. By adopting Eastland for school purposes the citizens of that suburb would get the advantages of city schools by paying the city school tax and it was shown by figures that the city would receive in return a neat sum each year over and above the expenses of educating the Eastland children, while at the same time the Eastland property owners would assist in retiring the city's school bonds and help very much in paying for the proposed new school building in the sixth ward.

Immediately after the joint meeting, the Board of Education met in Executive session to consider the matter and the President was authorized to sign the contract with the County School Board admitting Eastland, if, after investigation, he found the assessment of that district to be one and one-half million dollars or more.

The assessment of this district had been figured by the School Board at two and a half million dollars but Superintendent Caplinger investigated the matter this morning and found the actual assessment aside from tobacco to be $750,000. This discovery means that the Board of Education has not accepted Eastland. However, the matter is being taken under advisement and some are favorably inclined toward admitting the district. The matter will probably be finally settled at a call meeting of the Board, Thursday evening.

Don't worry about the weather. Buy a ticket for "Green Stockings" and forget your troubles.

It is understood that a large number of the boys and girls will be entered in the parade and some have taken much pains to decorate their wheels beautifully.

DEFENSE IN MURDER CASE RESTS; GOES TO JURY TOMORROW

Defense Falls Down in Attempt to Prove Revolver Belonged To He Glenn's and Sold By Marksberry Was Bought From Another.

Interest in the Marksberry murder case at Brooksville today was greater even than yesterday and the crowd of people in the little capital city was much greater than the city had ever before seen. Hundreds of automobiles from all over this section were parked on the streets and the court house was crowded.

Thomas Marksberry was turned over by his lawyer, to Prosecutor Grannis this morning at the opening of court for cross examination. Mr. Grannis put the defendant through a series of questions lasting for several hours but the prisoner remained calm and refused to be disquieted at all times taking his own good time to answer. The Prosecutor was unable to lead the prisoner to contradict himself.

The defense made an effort to prove that the gun previously identified as the property of Glenn and sold by Marksberry to an Augusta merchant, had been purchased by Marksberry from a gypsy at Falmouth but in this they failed. It had been proven that Glenn's gun was a center fire and that the gun Marksberry had sold in Augusta was center fire while the gypsy, on cross examination, testified that the gun he sold Marksberry was rim fire. The defendant's other witnesses also fell down in several instances on cross examination.

Finishing their evidence shortly after dinner today the case was handed back to the prosecution which will probably use all the afternoon in rebuttal of testimony. The case will likely be argued Thursday morning and the jury may get it by noon.

Having been refused their request of flat increases in salary of $300 per year by the Board of Education of the city of Newport, the school teachers in that city went on a strike this morning leaving the 2,963 children of that city without instructors.

Watch your step! You'd be surprised at the trouble one pair of "Green Stockings" could cause.

Studebaker WAGONS, BUGGIES, HARNESS

A STUDEBAKER THAT HAS SAVED MONEY FOR ITS OWNER

I thought my Studebaker from your agent, D. M. Smith, of Flint, Mich., in 1917, and have used it continuously on my farm.

I have a farm of 140 acres, with good buildings, and this wagon has done all the material.

Two years ago my son put on these tires and kept them for over a year without a single puncture.

Last summer we kicked a leader behind it and drew our hay to the barn.

The wagon had not been shattered half the time for the last twenty years yet has never broken a wheel or an axle.

John H. Wood, Fleming, Mich.

Not a broken wheel or axle — in use 37 years — still good for haying

Think what it means to get 37 years and more work out of a wagon.

Cuts down the cost—doesn't it?

The Studebaker wagon will stand any reasonable strain. We know what Studebaker wagons that we have sold have done.

Come in and let us tell you what our experience has been with the Studebaker people, our experience with Studebaker wagons and the experience of those to whom we have sold Studebaker wagons.

Army life at one time appended to Sir Hamar Greenwood, the new Chief Secretary for Ireland. He has told how at sixteen years of age he ran away from his Canadian home to join the army. His father followed and found his young hopeful doing sentry duty with all the pride and jauntiness of a born soldier. "The old gentleman was giving me a sound thrashing then and there," says Sir Hamar. "But I turned out the guard and had him arrested for attempting to rush the sentry."

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS

ANNUAL CONVENTION

HELD NEXT WEEK

Baptists Will Review Year at Annual Meeting Held in Washington City Next Week.

Larger contributions to denominational interests, local and general, more successful missionary effort on many of the foreign fields, a healthy increase in baptisms at home, and advances along practically every line will be reported at the 25th annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention which will convene in the Billy Sunday tabernacle at Washington, May 12.

The report of the commission which directed the 75 Million Campaign will show that the subscriptions have gone considerably beyond the 90 million mark, while cash payments will total many millions. The forward program of the denomination for the remaining four years of the campaign will be outlined at this time. The formulation of this program, together with the reports of the general director of the campaign, and of the commission which toured Europe and the Near East, will offer topics of special interest in the convention proceedings.

Washington Baptists are preparing for 10,000 delegates and visitors, and special trains will be run from many states to transport these delegates to the Capitol City. Hundreds of churches which have never been represented in the convention before will send large delegations this year.

The Woman's Missionary Union will hold its session in Washington May 13, and 14, arrangements having been made for the women to meet in the Calvary Baptist church. This organization, as well as the general convention, has had the most successful year in its history, and inasmuch as women are entitled to vote in the convention proper also, an unusually large number of them are expected to attend the sessions of both bodies.

USE LIME AND NITROGEN.

NITRE NITROGEN.

Here's something else about lime—the use of it on land planted to legumes greatly increases the amount of nitrogen taken from the air by the crops. Some experiments with soy beans conducted by the Wisconsin Experiment Station gave the following results: Total nitrogen in crops—Untreated 148.5; inoculated 453.9; lime only, 333.2; lime and inoculation 511.7. Nitrogen taken from the soil—Untreated 148.5; inoculated 130.4; lime only 161.4; lime and inoculation 222.7. Nitrogen taken from air—Untreated none; inoculated 323.5; lime only 171.8; lime and inoculation 359.0. The use of lime to grow legumes and grasses is one of the surest and cheapest means of increasing the nitrogen content of the soil. — Southern Agriculturist.

Buy Your Coal Direct From Mine—Big Saving

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal. The way to buy coal is to get it direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a car-load buyer or one who uses only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and oldest-established concern, THE BEHNKE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 445 Canal Building, Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never before had coal that makes so little dust, that burns so well, having so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, lump or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Behnke Coal Co. at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.

Behind Your Telephone—

Back of that telephone on your wall or your desk are miles and miles of wire; huge cables in the air or underground; the wonderfully intricate mechanism of switchboards; a complete plant plus a trained organization of people whose business it is to provide for and make your telephone service.

The telephone instrument itself is the smallest part of the telephone exchange; it represents hardly one-tenth the investment the company has made to provide a line for your own special use; its maintenance is but an insignificant fraction of the cost of the management, upkeep and operation of the plant behind it.

It is but representative of the plant and organization behind it, all of which must be organized, maintained and operated in readiness, day or night, to serve you.

When you lift your receiver, you have all this at your command!

MACARTNEY ATTENDS LIBRARY CONFERENCE.

Lexington, Ky., May 3.—Dean Thomas B. Macartney, of Transylvania College, and a trustee of the Public Library, Lexington, attended a conference with representatives of the executive committee of the American Library Association in charge of the "Enlarged Program of Books for Everybody" held in Indianapolis Thursday and Friday. This conference was composed of officials of the American Library Association and of library trustees and librarians from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky. While in Indianapolis, Dean Macartney visited Butler College, and upon his return stopped over for a day at Oxford, Ohio, to visit Miami University.

HOW TRUCK HELPS OUT.

I have lots of hogs and cattle to sell. I find my large farm truck handy for hauling my hogs to market in. It is also handy for young calves to be carried in. I don't think any good farmer should be without a truck to do his heavy hauling in. I find mine handy for most anything.—J. E. Ames, in Southern Agriculturist.

Hay is now loaded and packed into freight cars by means of the air-blast. The hay is drawn up to a platform beside the car by a crane, and a powerful air blower hurls it into the car, pressing it down and packing it.

GOVERNOR MORROW GENERAL CHAIRMAN

Salvation Army Home Service Campaign in Kentucky Will Take Place May 10-20.

Governors of all states east of the Mississippi river are taking an active interest in the Salvation Army Home Service Campaign, May 10-20. Realizing the splendid work done by the Salvation Army and appreciating its earnest desire to fully meet present-day opportunities, Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, has accepted the general chairmanship of the campaign in this state. The state chairman is Judge Henry S. Barker, of Louisville. Judge Barker is very well known to Kentuckians. He served as a member of the State Court of Appeals, was president of the University of Kentucky, and is engaged in the practice of law in Louisville. Judge Barker has always taken a leading part in welfare work in Kentucky. Vice chairmen will be appointed for each of the thirteen districts in the state.

J. Paul Swain is the state director, with offices in the Coleman Building, Louisville. He is assisted by three division directors—H. M. Oldfield, for the Western Division; Owen R. Mann, for the Central Division, and C. C. Cadden, for the Eastern Division. Charles W. Morris, Louisville, is chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, and George E. Stephens is state publicity director.

In accepting the general chairmanship of the campaign Governor Morrow said:

"The splendid work of the Salvation Army appeals to the heart of all who are familiar with the work accomplished by its unselfish, devoted officers and members. Wherever the Salvation Army 'carries on' there you will find a need supplied; a food-sore, unfortunate, a hungry one fed, an aching heart given comfort of solace. It appeals to the great heart of Kentucky to respond generously to the call of the Salvation Army in its Home Service Campaign. Let us not be outdone by other states in rallying to the support of an institution which has done and stands willing to do its full share, helpful and running over, for the homeless and the afflicted."

ANTI-SUICIDE CLUB FOR DOWN AND OUTERS

Helping Hands Stretched Out By Salvation Army Workers to the Despairing.

Many anti-suicide clubs in the state of Kentucky are quietly carrying on the work of inducing people not to take their own lives.

These clubs are among the Salvation Army's many agencies for grappling with moral and social problems. Practically every active Salvation Army corps in the state has one of these clubs—whether the agency bears the name of "Anti-Suicide Club" or not.

State Army officials report that local Salvation Army officers frequently are notified of cases of attempted suicide, or of those suffering from morbid impulses. Particulars in these cases come from police, relatives of the distressed persons, or through other agencies.

Salvation Army officers, when they hear of a case of a person being on the verge of taking his own life, immediately call on the person and give what advice or relief is necessary. By talking things over with the Salvation Army officer, the person gets a different view of things and often concludes that life is worth while.

This is one of the many agencies for good in the work of the Salvation Army, whose Home Service Campaign is on in Kentucky, May 10-20.

MORE BOOKS FOR BLIND.

American Library Association Behind Movement to Bring Good Literature to Those Who Walk in the Dark.

There are between 25,000 and 30,000 blind people in the United States. The supply of books in the recently adopted uniform Braille type for their use is inadequate there being less than 100 titles existing in that form. The American Library Association has included in the projects of its Enlarged Program the resolve to aid in printing and distributing additional volumes. It has already succeeded in inducing several well-known authors to finance the printing of one or more of their books. In inaugurating its "Books for Everybody" movement a fund of $2,000,000 will be raised to carry out the provisions of the Program. The money to be obtained out by a campaign or drive, but through the efforts of the librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries.

Evidently the Giants' hurling squad got away on the wrong foot. McGraw is banking on his pitchers and their failure to come through will be a dire disappointment to the veteran manager.

A THOROUGH TEST One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

NEGRO PROFESSIONAL MEN OF KENTUCKY WILL MEET HERE

Twenty-Third Annual Session of Society of Negro Physicians, Pharmacists and Dentists Here
May 12-13.

On the above dates this able body of Kentucky professional men will assemble in this city, and it will be the first meeting of this society in northern part of this state. It is needless at this time to call upon our people to do their full duty that the stay of these our honored guests, may be filled with happiness and success during their sojourn within our gateway, for we feel they will respond in a harmonious way upon this momentous occasion and weight in their full measure.

A public welcome exercise will take place at Bethel Baptist church on Wednesday night, May 12th, where some state and national characters of note will appear on the program. After which a smoker and luncheon will take place at the Odd Fellow's hall in honor of the doctors, given by some twenty-five public spirited citizens who are financing the same.

The committee who have this matter in charge have spared neither labor or money in completing their arrangements. And much credit is due the splendid men and women who came to the assistance of the local physician in order that the affair should be a success, also the organist and choir of Bethel Baptist church who will render sweet music on Wednesday night.

AN APPREHENSION.

It was my privilege to be present at a banquet given by the City School Board at the High School building last night, to which the City Council and a number of the leading citizens of Maysville were invited. The menu was prepared by the members of the Domestic Science class, and it would do honor to any of our hotels or restaurants.

Being a deeply interested listener, I observed closely everything that was said and done. After the feast Dr. Samuel, president of the City Board of Education, announced that the object of the meeting was to discuss the proposition of taking the Eastland school district into the city of Maysville for educational purposes only and the erection of a school building in the Sixth ward to accommodate this enlarged constituency. Everyone present—E. W. Lane.

Solo, "If I Were a Rose"—A. V. Travis.
Address of Response—Dr. E. E. Underwood.

Quartet, "Italia, Italia, Beloved"—Mrs. Florence Harris, Miss Florence Lang, Prof. A. V. Travis and Mr. Robt. Robinson.

Solo—Mrs. Irene B. Giles.
Announcements.

Benediction—Rev. Robt. Jackson.
The public is invited to the public welcome exercises, May 12th, at Bethel church and also to the sessions of the medical society.

ent was asked to speak to these two propositions.

Several of these men had given years of service to the city as guardians of her interests, and had proven their competency by the results of their management. Some were just entering upon the duties of official trust.

The thing that impressed me in this exchange of opinions was the broad statesmanship and liberal views of these men. They discussed these questions from every angle. Present needs and future possibilities were considered. The financial side was thoroughly gone over. The question of maintenance was held up to view. There was a frankness and a freedom in every talk that indicated the most complete sincerity. As I listened to these captains of industry and representatives of the various occupations of our city, I felt that I was among wise counselors, and men who led at heart the best interests of Maysville. I felt that they could be trusted and should be trusted by our citizenship, and that in their hands, guided by Divine Providence, our highest interests would be subserved. I feel that I owe it to the public to say this much in the hope of stimulating confidence and encouraging co-operation.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
